

Elihu Root, photographed at the Republican State Convention in Carnegie Hall, where he made the address defining the 1920 campaign issues. The speech was one of his best efforts.

Photo, International.

Above — Executive Committee of the New York Republican State women. Seated, left to right: Mrs. Macdonald De Witt, Mrs. Florence Knapp, Mrs. Arthur Livermore, Miss May Cahoon. Standing: Mrs. William Ives, Mrs. Ruth Litt, Mrs. Nathan Glauber, Mrs. Albert H. Gleason.

Copyright, Keystone View.

Photo, Central News.

Sir Auckland Geddes, prominently mentioned as British Ambassador to the United States. His wife was an American.

Mrs. Arthur L. Livermore, New York's only woman representative in the National Republican Convention. She will go as an alternate delegate-at-large.

Photo, International.

At Left — Senora Arturo Lamareo, known as the "most beautiful woman in Chile," whose husband is delegate to the Pan-American Conference. She has been extensively entertained in New York and Washington.

Copyright, White Studio.

Snow did not worry this merry grandstand party at Lake Placid, and every feature of the skating carnival roused their enthusiasm.

Miss Constance M. Vaclain of Philadelphia, ardent horse show exhibitor, who will take a string to the great Olympic Show in London next June. The horse is The Whip, a chestnut hackney.

Copyright, Ledger Photo.